A second large grid table, similar to the first one, with multiple columns and rows. It also contains some faint text in the top-left corner, which is mostly illegible. The grid is composed of small squares, typical of a spreadsheet or data table.
